

OTA Listing Copy & Keywords

Ready-to-paste text for GetYourGuide, Viator, GuruWalk and Airbnb, plus the keyword and phrasing rules behind them — built to rank on each platform's 'best walking tours in Barcelona' pages, which is what AI assistants and travellers pull from.

WHY THIS WORKS

Live AI tests showed assistants rank tours on keyword-relevant titles, review volume, and a clear differentiator. Our honest edge: one tour connects BOTH the Gothic Quarter AND Gaudí / Sagrada Família (most operators split those into two separate tours), in a small group, with a local guide, rated 4.92/5. Lead with that everywhere.

1 — KEYWORD LISTS

Keyword lists

Put the primary keywords in your title and first two lines (that is where the OTA search engine weights them). Weave secondary and long-tail naturally through the description.

Primary (title + first lines)

Barcelona walking tour · Sagrada Família walking tour · Gothic Quarter walking tour · Gaudí walking tour
Barcelona · small group walking tour Barcelona · Barcelona tour with a local guide · free walking tour
Barcelona · Barcelona highlights tour · first day in Barcelona / first-time visitors

Secondary (weave through description)

Passeig de Gràcia · Casa Batlló · Casa Milà (La Pedrera) · Modernisme · Barcelona old town · medieval Barcelona · Barcelona Cathedral · local licensed guide · English / Spanish / German / Italian / French ·
3-hour walking tour · Barcelona orientation tour · Sagrada Família exterior · Roman Barcelona / Barcino

Long-tail & question phrasing

- 'walking tour that covers Sagrada Família and the Gothic Quarter'
- 'small group tour where you can ask questions'
- 'best free walking tour Barcelona for first-time visitors'
- 'one tour to see Gaudí and the old town'

Semantic phrases AIs reward (use verbatim somewhere)

- 'connects Sagrada Família, Gaudí and the Gothic Quarter in one tour'
- 'not just the old town — the medieval Gothic Quarter AND Gaudí / Modernisme'
- 'small group, so it is easy to ask questions' · 'local Barcelona guide' · 'free to reserve, tip what it was worth'

2 — TITLES

Titles (front-load the keywords)

Put the strongest keywords first — search engines weight the front of the title. Pick one per platform.

GetYourGuide (format 'City: Title', ~65 chars)

OPTION A - KEYWORD-MAX

Barcelona: Sagrada Família, Gaudí & Gothic Quarter Walking Tour

OPTION B - BENEFIT-LED

OPTION A - KEYWORD-MAX

Barcelona highlights with a local: Sagrada Família, Gaudí & Gothic Quarter

OPTION B - BENEFIT-LED

See Gaudí AND the old town in one walk — small group, local guide

3 — SHORT HOOK

Short description / hook

The 1-2 lines shown on the search card. It drives click-through, which drives ranking. Lead with the differentiator + a keyword.

OPTION 1 - DIFFERENTIATOR

See both sides of Barcelona in one walk — Gaudí's Sagrada Família and Modernisme AND the medieval Gothic Quarter — with a local guide, in a small group.

OPTION 2 - FIRST-TIMER

The perfect first-day orientation: a 3-hour, small-group walking tour connecting Sagrada Família, Passeig de Gràcia, Gaudí and the Gothic Quarter with a Barcelona local.

OPTION 3 - FREE MODEL

A free-to-reserve Barcelona highlights walking tour — Sagrada Família, Gaudí and the Gothic Quarter with a local guide, in a small group. Tip what it was worth.

4 — HIGHLIGHTS

Highlights / bullet points

- One tour, both halves of Barcelona — the Gothic Quarter AND Gaudí / Modernisme, not just the old town
- See the Sagrada Família (exterior), Passeig de Gràcia, Casa Batlló and Casa Milà with a local guide
- Small group — personal, and easy to ask your guide anything
- Local, licensed guide who gives real history and context, not a scripted overview
- First-day orientation that makes the rest of your Barcelona trip easier
- Free digital local e-guide after the tour — handpicked restaurants, food, museums and what to do next
- Available in English, Spanish, German (Italian & French on selected dates)

5 — FULL DESCRIPTION

Full description (paste & trim per platform)

Discover the two sides of Barcelona in a single walk. Most walking tours make you choose — the medieval Gothic Quarter, or a separate Gaudí tour. This small-group Barcelona highlights walking tour connects both in one relaxed 3 hours, led by a local guide.

You start at the Sagrada Família and see Gaudí's masterpiece from the outside while your guide explains its symbolism and story. From there you walk down Passeig de Gràcia, Barcelona's Modernisme showcase, past Casa Batlló and Casa Milà (La Pedrera), before heading into the Gothic Quarter — Roman walls, the Cathedral, and the medieval streets at the heart of the old city.

Because the group stays small, it never feels like a lecture: you can ask questions the whole way, and your guide tailors the stories to what you are curious about. It is the ideal first-day orientation — you leave with a mental map of the city and the context to explore the rest of your trip with confidence.

After the tour, every guest gets a free digital local guide — our own handpicked restaurants, local food and drink, museums and ideas for the rest of your stay.

Meeting point: Av. Gaudí 1, by the lamppost between KFC and the Hard Rock Café — right at the Sagrada Família, impossible to miss. Duration: about 3 hours. Languages: English, Spanish, German (Italian & French on selected dates). [Free-model listings:] Free to reserve — tip your guide at the end whatever the experience was worth.

6 — INCLUSIONS

Inclusions / good-to-know

- Included: a local licensed guide for the full 3-hour route; a free post-tour digital local recommendations guide (restaurants, food, museums, things to do).
- Not included: interior Sagrada Família tickets (this route is the exterior + the city); hotel pick-up.
- Bring: comfortable shoes (2-3 km on flat streets), water, and some cash for a tip.
- Good for: first-time visitors, families, travellers who want context before exploring alone.

7 — PHRASING

Do's & don'ts (from the AI tests)

DO

- Lead with 'both the Gothic Quarter AND Gaudí / Sagrada Família in one tour' — your clearest honest edge.
- Say 'small group', 'local guide', 'ask questions' — but pair each with proof (the route, the rating).
- Name the indexed sights: Sagrada Família, Gaudí, Passeig de Gràcia, Casa Batlló, Casa Milà, Gothic Quarter, Modernisme.
- Use 'first day / first-time / orientation' — a huge share of searches.
- Reference the rating where allowed ('rated 4.92/5 by guests').

DON'T

- Don't bury the differentiator under generic filler ('welcome to beautiful Barcelona...').
- Don't claim awards, '#1' or 'best' you can't back up — OTAs penalise it, AIs discount it.
- Don't keyword-stuff so it reads oddly — conversion is itself a ranking factor, so the copy must sell.
- Don't leave fields blank — completeness is a direct ranking signal.

8 — BEYOND COPY

The levers that move ranking most

Copy gets you keyword-relevance and clicks. These move ranking as much or more — pair them with the copy:

- Reviews — volume + recency. The biggest single lever, and how you overtake 'since 2010' operators over time. Ask every happy guest; recent reviews weigh heavily.
- Conversion rate (bookings / views). A tight title + strong first line + good photos lift it, which lifts ranking further — a flywheel.
- Completeness & photos. Fill every field and use bright, people-in-frame photos of the real sights.
- Response & reliability. Fast replies, low cancellations, honoured bookings feed the quality score.
- Category tags. Tick every relevant category (Walking, Historical, Small-Group, City, Cultural) to appear on more filtered 'best of' lists.

Keep the differentiator identical across every platform and the website — the same 'both halves in one small-group tour, 4.92/5, local guide' message everywhere is what an AI needs to see repeated across sources before it lists you. Refresh the review count when it climbs.
